Ike Defends Civil Rights Law As Moderate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today defended his civil rights program as a very moderate, decent one.

He told his news conference that he was disappointed that some opponents contended it would destroy their own civil rights. He apparently referred to critics who attacked the House-passed measure on grounds it would deprive persons of trial by jury in certain cases.

Eisenhower said his program was designed with the idea of moderation and not with the idea of persecution of anyone.

He ducked a question about whether he would recommend that Republicans try to keep the Senate in session long enough to break any filibuster by southern Democrats against the legislation. In another news conference high-light, Eisenhower said the Justice Department is studying recent far-reaching Supreme Court decisions on the question of constitutional rights of individuals.

Navy Pilot Loses Second Joust With Death

FALLON, Nev. (AP) — A Navy pilot's second joust with death in recent months ended in tragedy Tuesday over the Nevada desert. Lt. (jg) Harry M. Nyberg, 28, Berkeley, was killed when his AD-6 Skyraider attack plane failed to pull out of a dive on a practice bombing run near here.

Israel Concerned Over Submarines

By UNITED PRESS
Israel expressed growing concern today at Egypt's acquisition of three Soviet submarines, and informed sources said an attack on Israeli shipping meant war. The Israeli Cabinet met in emergency session Tuesday night and early today to discuss the Soviet move which once again shifted the Middle East balance of power. Jerusalem dispatches said the atmosphere in Israel resembled that of the days just before the Sinai invasion when a swift Israeli drive captured much of the Soviet equipment turned over to Egypt in the 1955 Czech arms deal.

A SERIES of new incidents along the border in the Gaza Strip heightened tension in that area, and some Israeli sources said Cairo might be planning new actions to force Israel to attack.

Karol Himes Selected As Miss Palm Springs Winner

Miss Karol Himes, 18-year-old Palm Springs model, last night was crowned Miss Palm Springs to end four weeks of exciting competition.

In front of a capacity crowd in the Chi Chi Starlite Room, Miss Himes was crowned by Stephanie Bruton, last year's Miss Palm Springs, assisted by Ann Trebes of Long Beach, who had just won the title of Miss Welcome to Long Beach. She is the official hostess during the Miss Universe Contest.

WITH ALL THE fanfare, glitter and ceremony possible, emcee Bob Linskey led each of the three finalists across the stage as twenty Palm Springs bachelors scored each girl on five separate items: poise, charm, personality, and beauty of face and figure.

Close to the winner in the final scoring were Jo Roth, 18, who was sponsored by Gladys' Shop and The Desert Bootery, and Carol Anderson, 22, who was sponsored by the Illa Mae Beauty Shop. Miss Himes is sponsored by George Beebe shops.

Powers May Run As U.S. Senator

OAKLAND (AP) — Lt. Gov. Harold J. Powers said Tuesday night he had considered running for U.S. senator.

Powers told a meeting of the newly-formed Oakland Republican Assembly, "I have received many offers of support as a candidate to the office of U.S. senator. At present, I have no more than considered the possibility in my own mind."

A double mine explosion Tuesday killed one member of a United Nations Emergency Force patrol and seriously wounded four others. Earlier UNEF troops shot and killed two Arabs trying to cross the border into Israel.

YUGOSLAV TROOPS were the victims, and UNEF officers said it appeared that some mines had been laid deliberately to harm UNEF troops. Two Indian soldiers were killed in a mine explosion earlier this year.

Relations between Egypt and Jordan steadily deteriorated, and there were indications relations might worsen between Jordan and Syria, Egypt's chief partner in the Arab neutralist camp. Jordan recalled its charge d'affaires from Damascus Tuesday and there was no indication today in Amman that he would be replaced.

THE RHINESTONE encrusted tiara, which was Miss Palm Springs' crown, was presented to the winner from Jewels by Alchian, and she also received a course on charm from Heien Beverly Stute, who will open a new charm school in the Village next season, and will train Miss Himes for the coming Miss California Contest. The Illa Mae Beauty Shop presented the winner with a hair-styling for the Miss California Contest.

The Miss Palm Springs contest is an annual affair co-sponsored by The Desert Sun and the Chi Chi, and according to Bob Linskey, plans are already under way for next year's event.

The public is invited to attend the Miss California Contest which will be held in the Embassy Room at the Ambassador Hotel at 8 p. m. on June 28, and reservations for the contest may be made by calling The Desert Sun.

Javits Asks Halt To Criticism

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) called today for a halt to "berating" the Supreme Court for its recent decisions against the government in Communist cases.

Ike Agrees To Testing Compromise

Says U. S. Would Accept Temporary Suspension Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today that he would be perfectly delighted to make some temporary arrangement in the East-West disarmament talks to suspend nuclear testing.

Such a suspension, he said, would not be without some conditions. Chief of these would be a thorough inspection system to make sure that all countries were living up to the agreement.

THE PRESIDENT, in a departure from previous policy, told his news conference he does not believe a simultaneous agreement to cut off production of fissionable materials for weapons necessarily would have to be part of a temporary plan to suspend nuclear tests.

His comments came as both Britain and France were reportedly balking at the original United States insistence on linking any bomb test suspension with an agreement to a temporary halt in tests.

Newsman questioned the President several times on the test issue.

HE FIRST SAID he would be perfectly delighted to make some temporary arrangement to suspend tests while efforts were made to work out permanent agreements banning them. Later, he said this would not be an isolated agreement and would not be without some conditions.

He said a temporary agreement would be the opening phases to a broader disarmament program.

ON DISARMAMENT the President also:

Asserted that Moscow's new proposal to suspend nuclear tests for a period of two to three years under a system of controls is a hopeful sign.

The proposal deserves earnest and sympathetic study but he is reserving final judgment until it is spelled out in detail by the Soviets.

Record Heat Wave Bakes Both Coasts

Death Toll From Weather Hits 150 Mark

By UNITED PRESS
Record high temperatures continued to bake both coasts today, but relief for the East was on the way from a cold front that dropped temperatures in the Midwest by as much as 30 degrees.

The mercury bubbled into the 90-degree plus range again Tuesday over most of the eastern third of the nation, climbing to 97 in Philadelphia for a third straight day of record heat in that city.

IN THE WEST, readings soared to a record 104 degrees in Los Angeles for the hottest day there since Sept. 1, 1955. The heat was blamed for a rash of brush fires, one of which destroyed nearly 2,000 acres at Lake Elsinore and another at Griffith Park in Hollywood.

The combination of hot weather and floods in the Northern Midwest and Plains states boosted the toll of weather-caused deaths beyond the 150 mark since last weekend.

THE UNITED PRESS counted at least 115 persons drowned in trying to escape the heat. In addition, at least 30 persons were killed in floods, eight died from lightning and two from heat prostration to raise the number of weather deaths to at least 155.

Brownings in the upstate New York vacation region claimed at least 15 lives.

A flood tragedy at Munjor, Kan., killed two Roman Catholic priests, and at least three persons were dead and two were missing in South Dakota floods. Another man drowned in a Marshall, Minn., flood.

FLOODWATERS continued to plague sections of Kansas and South Dakota in the wake of torrential rains.

Other heat records Tuesday included 93 at Burlington, Vt., the highest June temperature ever recorded there; 100 at Elmira, N.Y.; 97 at Albany, and 95 at Syracuse, N.Y.; 94 at Hartford, Conn.; 96 at Washington, D.C., for the sixth straight day of 90-degree readings in the nation's capital, and 100 at Sacramento, Calif.

In Chicago, temperatures dropped nearly 30 degrees as cool northern winds brought an early morning low of 63 degrees to the city. Cooler weather also was expected over the California coast today, but weathermen said the interior of the state will remain hot.

THE SCHOOL BOARD "DRAFT" of Mrs. Louisa Sanborn neared its climax today as Dr. Benjamin Goldberg prepared petitions for presentation to the Board of Education tonight. The petitions, carrying more than 300 signatures, ask the board to appoint Mrs. Sanborn to one of two board vacancies. (Desert Sun Photo).

Citizens Group to Press For Naming of Mrs. Sanborn

A group of Palm Springs residents, organized as the "Citizens for Better Schools Committee," today prepared to climax their campaign to capture one of two vacant Board of Education seats for Mrs. Louisa Sanborn.

Public Urged To Attend Meet

Residents in the Palm Springs Unified School District were today urged to attend the Board of Education meeting scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at Frances Stevens School. Area civic leaders stressed the importance of voter representation at the meeting which was termed as possibly the most vital of the year.

A committee delegation will appear at tonight's School Board meeting with petitions asking for appointment of Mrs. Sanborn to fill one of the vacancies created

30 'Shaken Up' In Train Wreck

GRANTS, N.M. (AP) — The last four cars of a moving Santa Fe Railroad streamliner became uncoupled near here Tuesday night and crashed into the remaining section of the passenger train. Railroad officials said about 30 persons were "shaken up" and that one unidentified person was "seriously injured."

Both Burn Off Coast Of France

Rescue Ships Converge on Area, Save 64 from Sea

BREST, France (AP) — An American tanker and a Greek motor-ship-freighter collided in heavy fog today in the Atlantic "graveyard of ships" off the Brittany coast of France. Both ships burned so fiercely that smoke rose 4,000 feet above the sea.

Radio reports said nine persons were known dead, one of the 10,306-ton United States tanker Stony Point and eight on the 9,345-ton Greek ship Ioannis.

Four other persons were missing and feared dead. Many of the survivors were severely burned.

VESSELS FROM four nations converged on the crash area. Radio reports said they had picked up 64 of the 77 crew members of the two vessels. Shipping reports said the American tanker had a crew of 41 and the Greek ship 36.

An American airman who flew an Air Force amphibian over the area said he had received a report that "all survivors" had been picked up, but said he did not know how many were involved.

Capt. Lowell Dierdt, St. Louis, Mich., said visibility was so bad the rescue planes could barely see the burning ships. He said the smoke was rising to an altitude of 4,000 feet.

THE STONY POINT, owned by the U.S. Petroleum Carriers Inc., New York, and the Greek tanker collided shortly after 6 a.m. 14 miles west of Ushant Island, a rocky speck of land jutting into the turbulent Atlantic 13 miles west of Brest.

U.S. British, French and German ships rushed into the area where the two badly burning ships continued to stay afloat although their crews jumped overboard immediately after the disaster.

One radio report said rescue operations had been "hampered by intense heat from both burning vessels."

ANOTHER RADIO report, the only means of communication into the disaster area in the early part of the day, said there had been an explosion. But both vessels stayed afloat into the afternoon.

The tiny German freighter Erik Beckmann, which radioed the first news of the collision, stood up close to the treacherous coast to pick up survivors. It radioed it had 26 survivors from the Ioannis and 25 from the Stony Point.

Desperate calls went out for medical supplies. The big liner America, with a hospital aboard, hurried into the area.

The sky rained overcast throughout the area for most of the day preventing seaplanes and helicopters from getting in close. The U.S. Air Force flew air-sea rescue planes to the scene from English and German bases.

Late News Bulletins

WASHINGTON UP — Japanese Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi and President Eisenhower today opened historic talks which are expected to set a new course in Japanese-American cooperation. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles joined the initial session.

WHEEEE, IT'S SUMMER! And it's not too hard for adults to share the exhilaration of these school youngsters plunging into the high school swimming pool as the City Recreation and Parks Department opened its summer recreation program. Open from Tuesday through Sunday, the pool is only one part of a many-faceted program designed to provide all kinds of relaxation for Village residents, young and old alike. The city has already started arts and crafts classes, sports activities, including baseball and softball, square dancing and almost a dozen other recreational activities. A daily schedule of summertime fun will continue through August at city schools, playgrounds and Tamarisk Park. (Desert Sun Photo).

"ALL RIGHT NOW, podner, let's put that litter in the bag and not alongside the highway," says Doris Van Atten to Lois Lipsey. And she backs up her argument with the best kind of persuasion. It all goes to show that the proper use of the "litterbag" can save you from a lot of trouble. The litterbags are being distributed as part of the campaign to promote the Sheriff's Rodeo at De Anza Park, June 22-23.

San Diego Teen Agers Prove Idea Is Wrong

A group of San Diego teenagers have found one good answer for chronic juvenile critics, reports Mary Pickell, secretary to Judge Eugene Theriault.

Mrs. Pickell said she uncovered this information when she and her sister-in-law, Helen Pickell, were driving to Palm Springs from San Bernardino.

Unaccustomed to dealing with such emergencies, the two women were doubtfully contemplating the dismal chore of changing a tire in the blazing heat—when two cars loaded with eight teenagers pulled up and stopped.

"They changed the tire and then refused to accept any pay," Mrs. Pickell said. "They told us they had organized their Universal Car Club just to help motorists and that ours was the fourth tire they'd changed since leaving San Diego."

It seems that the San Diego youngsters want to prove that "not all teenagers are delinquents," Mrs. Pickell feels that they're well on the way to success.

Four Bandits Rob Lauritz Melchior of Cash, Jewels, Fur

HOLLYWOOD — Four bandits forced their way into the home of Lauritz Melchior Tuesday night, tied up the singer, his wife and his household employees and escaped with an estimated $175,000 in cash, jewels and furs as Melchior raced after them with a rifle.

"If I only could have gotten my gun in time," the Danish-born singer told police. "I pretended I had a heart attack, so they didn't tie me up very tight. I ran after them when they were leaving in their car, but I was too late."

MELCHIOR said the four tied him, his wife, Maris, nicknamed Kleinen or "little one," his valet, Charles Leuschner, and maid, Willa Huber, with neckties and stockings after taking the valuables.

Part of the loot included $110,000 in crown jewels once belonging to Queen Anastasia, mother of the present King Frederick IX of Denmark.

"This is a holdup," one of the men told Melchior. He waved a gun at him and forced him to open a wall safe. The others, two of whom wore nylon stocking masks, took cash, jewelry and four fur coats from other parts of the Mulholland Drive hilltop home.

"THEY WERE between 35 and 40 years old," Melchior told police. He said they did not harm anyone and left Mrs. Melchior's 75-year-old mother alone.

Royal Family Attends Party For Fairbanks

LONDON — The royal family attended the coming out party for Douglas Fairbanks' daughter Daphne Tuesday night and Princess Margaret danced till dawn with an Irish peer 3½ years her junior.

Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh attended with Princess Margaret and Princess Alexandra in another sign that the social stigma attached to divorcees in Britain is rapidly breaking down.

BOTH FAIRBANKS, former husband of actress Joan Crawford, and his wife have been married before. The Queen and Duke's attendance at a Fairbanks private dinner two years ago touched off a storm of protest.

Margaret's new boy friend was Lord Patrick Beresford, 23, who plays polo with the Duke and says he prefers spending his time in the stables to "wasting his time" with debutantes.

His family seat is in the republic of Ireland, which allows British peers to continue living there and retain their titles even though it is no longer part of the British Empire.

LORD BERESFORD has been the princess' constant escort in recent weeks and their long day together started early. He joined the royal party in their box at Ascot race-course and leaned over Margaret's shoulder to mark her race card.

He was one of the two "mystery" men seen with Margaret last week. The other, bearded, has not been identified publicly.

Queen Elizabeth arrived in a dazzling white gown and sparkling diamond tiara. She danced with Fairbanks and sat on one side drinking champagne while hundreds of guests danced in the great ballroom.

Barbers Union Ends Tradition, No More Gum

DETROIT — The local Barbers Union has decided there'll be no more lollipops or bubble gum handed out to youngsters in the future.

The barbers say the action did not come because of sticky chairs or gummed-up magazines. "It's to correct a situation that has gotten out of hand in recent years," a union spokesman said.

The union said free bubble gum was one thing but barbers didn't stop there in enticing children to their respective shears.

"It's no good," the union said, "when everybody starts trying to buy everybody else's business. It got so bad that one of the barbers was offering chances on a bicycle with every haircut. A drawing was held each week on a new bike."

"So we decided to put a stop to it."

Some 2,000 barbers in the Detroit area will be affected by the new ruling, announced Tuesday by Local 522 of the Barbers Union.

The ban wasn't aimed wholly at the children, the union said, "but we couldn't draw the line." It also prohibits barbers from giving away free cigars to Dad and trading stamps to Mom.

Verdi's opera, "Aida," was commissioned for use as part of the festivities celebrating the opening of the Suez Canal.

RED SKELTON as "Public Pigeon No. 1," in his zaniest comedy yet, is shown with comforting Vivian Blaine. The crazy, mixed-up Technicolor riot opens tonight at the Village Theatre. Also on the same program is co-feature "Man Afraid," a terrifying suspense drama starring George Nader and Phyllis Thaxter.

Communist Party Dropped Professor, Committee Hears

SAN FRANCISCO — A college professor says he had to drop out of the Communist Party because Red leaders feared he would blab their secrets while he was undergoing psychoanalysis.

This testimony came Tuesday from Dr. Jack Patten, 47, the only friendly witness of seven who appeared before the House Un-American Activities Subcommittee in the first of a four-day series of hearings.

FIVE OF THE unfriendly witnesses on the first day invoked the First and Fifth Amendments to the Constitution and the sixth invoked only the Fifth Amendment.

Under Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.), the committee is probing "intellectual infiltration" of San Francisco's professional life by Communists. Other subcommittee members are Reps. Robert J. MacIntosh (R-Mich.) and Gordon H. Scherer (R-Ohio).

MRS. BARBARA Sherwood, widow of Stanford research scientist William K. Sherwood who committed suicide rather than appear before the subcommittee, appeared briefly and asked permission to read a statement.

Walter refused, saying she would have to wait her turn to be called. Mrs. Sherwood then distributed mimeographed copies of the statement. Addressed to members of

Palm Springs Area One of Three Given Priority in Dump Planning

Presenting a master plan of public dumps to the county board of supervisors this week, Road Commissioner A. C. Keith observed that there are dumpsite problems in three particular areas of the county which are more acute and worthy of early consideration than the balance of the county.

The three areas are Palm Springs, Hemet and Glen Avon.

HEMET SITES ARE difficult to acquire, according to Keith. He recommended that negotiations be commenced with the City of Hemet for lease of its dumpsite.

He said the city has owned property on the western edge of the valley for some time and has recently purchased an additional 50 acres for dump purposes. This, he said, should serve the valley's estimated average population of 22,000 for approximately 25 years.

IT WILL REQUIRE five acres of desert land per year to accommodate a full cut and cover garbage and rubbish dump to serve the Palm Springs area including Garnet, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Thousand Palms, Indian Wells and Palm Desert, according to Keith.

It might be possible to lease about 160 acres of land in Section 10, Township 4 South, Range 5 East, in the Agua Caliente Indian Reservation, Keith told the supervisors, on a 25-year lease basis. He estimated the value of the land at $500 per acre. He said the annual rental fee would be approximately $4,200 and suggested provisions for rate adjustments due to increased land values at five-year intervals.

PURCHASE OR condemnation of private lands at $500 per acre in Section 9, Township 4 South, Range 5 East, with a total of 640 acres costing $32,000 would provide a full cut and cover dump.

Move for Further County Building Group Study Defeated

An attempt by Earl W. Porter, president of Taxpayers United, and Supervisor William Jones, to have the board of supervisors appoint a committee to consider a proposal by Porter for a county building program in lieu of that which was disposed of when the voters defeated a proposed county building bond issue June 11, failed this week when Supervisors Paul Anderson, Curtis Chamberlain and George Berkey voted against further committee study.

"We have had two committees," observed Berkey, "and their work has been ignored. This board should use their reports and recommendations as a basis for determining a building program."

As to asking further study by the last of the two committees, whose recommendation for a $5,465,000 building bond issue was defeated by the voters, Berkey declared, "I would be very much embarrassed to ask the same group to make a further study. I don't know what more they could come up with. I don't think we need any more committee study. It is now up to this board."

Porter advocated an expenditure of $2,450,000 for county buildings and parking facilities, over a five-year period, the money to come from sales tax and property tax. He said the balance of the projects proposed by the building commission could be constructed during a second five-year period.

Anderson charged that Porter's suggestions were made without sufficient technical knowledge and his cost figures "handed just as loosely as in the building bond issue campaign."

$70,000 Valley

Road Project

Given Approval

Acceptance into the county road system of Avenue 40 from Rio Del Sol to Washington Street, north of Indian Wells in the Coachella Valley, and its improvement for the five and one-fourth mile distance at a cost of $70,000 was approved by the county board of supervisors this week on recommendation by the county planning commission.

Property owners along the road will bear an expenditure of $30,000 as their portion of the cost of the improvement, the remaining $40,000 to be paid by the county.

Zoning Change

Hearing is Set

A hearing will be held July 22 at 10 a.m. on a proposed amendment to the county zoning ordinance which would allow the board of supervisors discretion as to the extension or modification of the present 180-day period within which privileges granted by a variance must be exercised.

Adoption of the amendment is recommended by the county planning commission.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Self-Confidence

WASHINGTON, D. C. — If it's American self-confidence that we need for world leadership, Senator Lyndon Johnson has shown the way. His call for an Open Curtain relationship between ourselves and Russia is so bold and self-assured that it almost seems to come from the stalwart American past and not from the all-fours, knock-kneed present.

How long has timidity been an American state of mind? My own date would be March 4, 1933, when a much misinterpreted clause, "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself," became part of our background.

ROOSEVELT GAVE us an inferiority complex which has been with us ever since. How else to explain our World War II alliance with Russia? We had been fed fear of Hitler and given to understand that without Russian help the absurd little madman would get us. That was bad enough, but in 1945 with Hitler beaten and the A-bomb almost ready for dropping, we again solicited Russian help — this time against the smoking, staggering wreck called Japan.

But — wait! With Roosevelt himself dead and gone, didn't we run to Tito as a helmsman against Russia? And, today, don't we go quaking in our shoes over the H-bomb which Russia may or may not possess? And what in heaven's name does this mighty nation need with some 40 midget allies? And why on earth did the White House get such a state of shakes when Krushchev came face-to-face on television with the American people?

LYNDON JOHNSON, I think, is reacting Newtonically, so to speak — that is, with equal force in the opposite direction — to this twenty-year performance of quake-and-quail. He's proposing that the Americans and Russians exchange once-a-week broadcasts on any and all of the subjects before the world today.

He mentioned industrialists, labor leaders, farmers, scholars and professionals as spokesmen for the Russo-American running debate, and I don't suppose he would exclude atomic scientists, military leaders and Senators from the list.

Undoubtedly, a great deal of hokum and malarky would traverse the air-waves in both directions, but the upshot of it all would be that we Americans would see the Russians as they would see us — not as nine feet tall, and breathing brimstone, but very much as the men we are.

JOHNSON IS saying, if I understand him, that we have nothing to fear — not even fear itself — from this exchange. The direct product would be knowledge of Americans about Russians, and vice versa; but both peoples would receive, I think, a by-product of no small importance.

Both peoples would obtain the chance, through the electronic cross-questioning, to see their respective governments on the witness stand. It's certain that the Russians would see and hear their government challenged to explain such things as last year's massacre in Hungary and the UN published charges of slave-labor camps in Siberia.

At the same time, Americans would hear their own government grilled in a manner that simply doesn't happen, even under our complete freedom of criticism. We Americans, quite properly, have an emotional loyalty which acts in favor of our leaders, especially in the case of the well-loved President Eisenhower. But it would be enlightening to hear like's Administration answer not to its countrymen but to unsympathetic foreigners, to such policies as these:

TROOPS TO EUROPE: Both the Truman and Eisenhower Administrations have gotten away with saying that our five American divisions are in West Europe to keep the Russians out. But West Europe is more populous than the U. S. A., and everybody knows by now that in World War III the two major enemies will jump at one another's jugular veins and not at one another's satellites.

Our troops are in West Europe, sad to say, for the same reason that Russian troops are in East Europe — to make sure that the local governments remain the same political coloration as the occupation authorities.

AID TO ASIA: Again, the Truman-Eisenhower Administrations have equally insisted they were arming the Asians against Communism. But it's street-corner knowledge in Washington that aid to Pakistan, for example, is to strengthen that country against non-Communist India. There is no reason why this whole subject should not be aired.

Nationalist China: It comes close to disloyalty for an American to raise this question, but an air-wave debate between this country and Russia would be useful. We would make much more sense if we extended the Eisenhower Quemoy-Matsu policy to Formosa. That is, we would defend all three of these places, and similar places, only if an attack upon them is part of a larger attack upon us and our interest.

Does our government draw back in alarm from discussing such touchy subjects? Then, that is additional proof that the Johnson Open Curtain plan is needed.

qualified candidates offer themselves for public office.

When the States Rights Party becomes a living, active thing at the grass roots of America it will be a force to be reckoned with and we know that it will be instrumental in helping to restore political sanity during these troubled times.

DON'T CODDLE THEM

(Pana (Illinois) News-Palladium)

Every time I go to Florida on vacation — it's been five times now and I hope I live long enough to do many more — I am favorably impressed with one thing in some of the so-called "backward" southern states: They put their imprisoned minor criminals to work on the highways. Every few miles you pass a bunch of men under guard trimming the highways, etc.

I don't see how you can beat that kind of a deal — the State gets some useful performance out of the lugs it's required to "protect" and feed for a while; and since it's a good guess many chaps who get sentenced for minor crimes aren't inclined toward manual labor in the first place, maybe a taste of same would be more of a crime deterrent than a short vacation in a bum's paradise, like Pana's notable former legislator, Carl Preihs, used to catalog the State Penal Farm at Vandallia.

Why coddle 'em? It'd be better to work 'em!

NO STAMP

(Houghton (Michigan) Mining Gazette)

Congress probably will conclude not to authorize a commemorative stamp for the only postmaster general who stopped the mails.

JOINT SACRIFICE

(Columbus (Mont.) News)

... If keeping the peace is going to be as expensive as war, then the people who want charity from the government should make the same sacrifices necessary under war-time circumstances. There are many ways the budget can be cut without taking a dime from the defense program.

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

Sorry to read
No horn pretty soon.

How in Heck

Will we know when it's noon?

Progress is great—but it has its disadvantages.

Transition from a Village to a Big City is raising a hob with the old habits of older Villagers.

FOR A LONG TIME now it hasn't been safe, or smart, to take off at any spot on the curb and stroll diagonally to the other side of the street.

Remember the days when driving south, say, on Palm Canyon Drive, you suddenly decided you wanted to go north. And you did with the aid of a U-turn no matter where you were?

You do that now and you'll either see Judge E. E. Theriault, Robert Henwood at Desert Hospital or Messrs. Wiefels.

But, I guess it's all for the best.

HOWEVER, the news that the old bulb atop the fire station on the Drive is going to be silenced except for dire distress, saddens me.

For years when I first came here in the early 40's, I lived near that throaty old bellow. First a few doors south, then a few doors north. And many a night it interrupted a beautiful dream with its hulloaloo. Got to know all of the districts by heart.

They say it's a sign of age when you quit following fire engines. Unless the signals designated down town, I stayed in bed.

WITH THE PASSING of the old fire siren, I understand the Volunteer Department is going on a reserve basis. But I'll lay 7 to 5 that some of the old bucks like Leo Wilkes, Joe Henderson, John Kline, Tom Kieley (well, maybe he's not too old), Ed Forbach, Fred Morrison, Bill Foster and Harold Smith, will scramble out of bed and into pants when they hear a fire truck.

You can't turn those old fire horses out to pasture.

THAT OLD SIREN has a lot of history. Remember once when Palm Springs decided to keep Daylight Time all winter. It didn't last long because we were out of step with the rest of the state.

But during the time we had it, people who listened for the customary two blasts at noon to go to lunch, were an hour late.

For Fire Chief Bill Leonosin was a rugged stand-patter. He sounded the noon blasts when it was noon in the rest of the state. It was 1 p. m. here. I liked that.

NOTE IN THE SUN where the Hotel and Apartment Association held a highly successful picnic at Tamarisk Park. So believe it is time to recall when the ENTIRE Village got together at the end of spring in a big home folks party.

Used to be held at the old Mashie Course of the Desert Inn, now sold.

Everybody in the Village attended. Got together to renew old friendships, eat and sing.

Be nice if they'd revive that old Village custom.

INEZ ROBB:

CAB Lowers the Boom

At long last the Civil Aeronautics Board has lowered a small boom on that aviation pest known as the "no-show," i.e., the irresponsible knucklehead who never (1) shows for the flight on which he has booked passage or (2) cancels his reservation.

During a test period beginning September 15, it will cost this on a $3 penalty for his inconsiderateness toward both the airline and the stand-bys praying for a seat on the same flight. It is one woman's opinion that a $3 penalty isn't enough for leaving the airline and the would-be passenger holding the bag.

But at least the CAB has made a beginning toward correcting this annoyance and financial loss to the air carriers.

So now, what about equal time and consideration for the long-suffering passenger of domestic airlines operating within the continental limits of the U.S.A.?

Just a moment ago the airline was holding the bag, bright, burnished, new and unscratched. Let us label this picture "Before" and offer it in evidence.

Now let us focus on the "After" picture. It features a passenger, fit to be tied, who has just completed his air journey. As we enter this in evidence, we see the passenger holding the once pristine bag, now battered, bashed, scratched, torn, its locks broken, its hinges twisted and its handle gone but not forgotten.

The latter picture is one of the most common sights at the baggage counter of any American airport. Is it any wonder then that there is a widespread belief that in the U.S.A. every airline hires a vice president in charge of luggage destruction.

There is an unshakable conviction abroad in the land that this veep crawls into the hold of each arriving plane and goes to work on baggage with a blow torch, axe, ice pick and cleats. Only when he is satisfied that every piece of luggage is properly defaced does he permit it to be unloaded. This, of course, is what accounts for the long interval between the time the passenger disembarks from the plane and collects his aged-in-the-hold suitcases.

Only a fortnight ago I took a brand new, beautiful piece of gleaming luggage on a 90-minute flight to Newport News. The luggage is the newest stuff on sale, guaranteed absolutely impervious to breakage, scratches, sledge-hammer or hooks.

But, by golly, the vice presidents in charge of luggage destruction of two major airlines (Yup had to change planes) overcame these formidable handicaps. When I retrieved my luggage at Newport News, the boys had gouged a fat hole out of my beautiful, indestructible luggage. You have to give the veeps credit; no challenge is too Olympian. Where there's a will, there's a way to bash up any bag.

I am about to run out of time, but as long as I am in the mood, what about the CAB insisting that domestic air carriers run on schedule? In the past 12 months of fairly constant air travel, not one plane out of five I have boarded has departed or arrived on time. And what about just a soupcon of courtesy for the cash customer? Whatever became of the smiling service one used to get from the airlines?

Years ago passengers excused anything in air travel because commercial aviation was an infant industry. But it's a big boy now and had best take a hitch in its belt.

Big War Among Quiz Shows?

NEW YORK — Wowee wow, it looks like I touched off a big war between Jack Barry, m.c. of TV's "21" show, and Steve Carlin, executive producer of "The $64,000 Question."

I wrote an interview with Barry in which he said Carlin was "unethical" when he fired him a year ago as quizmaster of "The Big Surprise."

Barry added that he and his partner, Dan Enright, had since "stolen the thunder" of Carlin's quiz show group.

"Hell has no fury like an m.c. scorned," retorts Carlin.

Denying that he alone fired him, Carlin says, "One sponsor became dissatisfied with Jack almost from the start... couldn't get rid of Jack fast enough... was willing to replace Jack with practically ANYBODY."

"At the end of the first 13-week cycle, Jack's contract was not picked up at the insistence of the dissatisfied sponsor."

"We went to bat for Jack, insisted that he be rehired. During the second cycle, we auditioned Mike Wallace."

"BOTH clients liked him better than Jack. We then gave Jack his notice."

"For 15 weeks we were looking for a replacement. He knew all about it. Yet he continues to paint this picture of poor little Jack in a sailor suit whose lollipop was stolen from him."

"Jack says I was unethical because he read about his dismissal in a newspaper three hours before he got his notice. Why blame me? I didn't release any news to the press, nor did any person in our office."

"Jack claims he has stolen our thunder," continues Carlin.

"Barry's show, excellent though it is, has ranked among the Nielsen Top Ten only once in its history. 'The $64,000 Question' has been consistently among the Top Ten for 20 months. On the last Nielsen rating we were still among the Top Ten. While '21' ranked about number 50."

"Losing a job is never pleasant," concludes Carlin. "Yet it has happened to all of us. How successful must Jack get before his ruffled ego is soothed, and he is willing to forget a painful incident?"

And now, having told both sides at equal length, I propose we forget it and go to happier subjects.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

The Feud Is On

HOLLYWOOD — There hasn't been anything like the Anna Magnani-Sophia Loren feud in Hollywood since the good old days when Gloria Swanson and Pola Negri vied for the Queen title. Oddly enough, the same studio where Swanson and Negri fought it out—Paramount—is the arena for the new vendetta. Anna is making "A Woman Obsessed" there and her paesana, Sophia, is making "Desire Under the Elms."

Sophia asked for an air-conditioning unit for her dressing room. Anna asked for two. Anna bars two reporters from her set, Sophia bars four. And so it goes.

I'VE TRIED to find out from every source at Paramount about the source of the strife between the two Italian stars. Nobody knows. One producer told me, "They're just being actresses that's all. Remember when Joan Crawford, Bette Davis, Ann Sheridan and Jane Wyman were all at Warner Brothers, and how they used to try to outdo each other by making grand entrances into the commissary a noon every day, each jockeying for the best table?"

Another producer answered my single question with five questions: "Did Wagner like Brahms? Was Sarah Bernhardt a fan of Eleanor Duse? Did Melba die Tetrazzini? Did Balzac read George Sand? Does Marshall Field's tell Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.?"

DESPITE WHAT her press agents say, "Pal Joey" is not Barbara Nichols' first caper for Columbia. Just two years ago the new star was Judy Holliday's stand-in in "Pffft" at that studio... Sir Cedric Hardwicke's remark about another actor: "God made him a good actor; he has turned himself into a bad one."

You've heard of the Stanislavsky Method of acting. Have you heard of the Borgnine Method? Ernie watches people coming out of banks. He tells me it's the best way in the world for an actor to study all the basic human emotions: joy, grief, fear, pride, covetousness, envy, etc.

Zsa Zsa Gabor swept into the Beverly Hills Brown Derby like a queen but her timing was wrong. Gilbert Roland stole her thunder with a red carnation in his lapel and that always-endearing young smile on his kisser.

Lex Barker switched from one of Hollywood's most luscious blondes, Lana Turner, to a brunette... But Harry Karl, blonde Marie McDonald's estranged spouse, is still hung up with a blonde—but this one's initials aren't MM!

THE MIDNIGHT EARL... Mickey Cohen'll invite more H-bell suits in his life story — says he had weekly dates with his wife while in prison, lived luxuriously, and names those allegedly paid off.

Our heart went out to "Mom" Dorsey, whose loyalty to her sons' born-blowing was great. Of a rival musician, she once said scornfully, "He hasn't got enough wind to dust a fiddle"... Ethel Waters had a great reply when asked if she's a success singing for Billy Graham: "God has no flops," she said.

Johnnie Ray undergoes ear surgery in July... Ella Fitzgerald's 35 lbs. lighter for her Copa opening... Steve Allen's taking over the "Tonight" offices at 729 7th. Jack Paar takes over his at the Hudson... Gov. Clement of Tenn. dined with Milton Randelman at the Colony, who wonders why he isn't a Tennessee colonel when his pal Benny Gaines is... Ray Anthony flew in to keep Mamie Van Doren company... There was some rude laughter at dramatic spots in "Island in the Sun"... Pretty Shirley Vincent's India's gift to the Folies' chorus.

Somebody busted in on a couple new Edsels hidden here and took pictures... Friends hope skater Donna Atwood and husband John Harris patch it up... Gloria Vanderbilt Lumet's aiming at another B-way role... Eddie Bracken'll direct "Packaged in Paris" on B-way, hopes to star Van Johnson, his understudy, in "Too Many Girls."

TV TOPICS—A young television actor named John Bradford replaced Tom Vize in the Hollywood Players' Ring production of "Girls of Summer." With very little work to do, Bradford proves once again that a good actor r-citing the multiplication table is much more moving than a bad actor messing around with Shakespeare.

There'll be a big shakeup at Screen Gems July 1. The telefilm production outfit has been getting very few nibbles for the $1,000,000 worth of pilot films it has shot so there's no use keeping a big staff on the payroll. Story editor Frank Price has already moved over to Al McCleery's Matinee Theatre staff (live shows —not filmed!)—and Lou Breslow and Joe Hoffman, producers of the filmed Ford Theatre will check out of Screen Gems, along with their staffs, July 1.

Red Skelton wants to know if that horrible word shouldn't be spelled MATRIMONEY?

ELVIS PRESLEY has his sights set on Claire Bloom this week... Matter of fact, Miss Bloom, just in from England, asked to meet Elvis! A friend asked why. Claire said, "I hear he's the great American phenomenon." I ran into that cute Anne Francis at Television City and reporter-like, asked her to tell me her hopes, dreams, her loves. Said she, "Get out here —all I want is a TV show in which I get to play a baby-faced KILLER!"

Dennis Day's Daddy's Day donation from all the little Days was a Dalmatian. The Days already have an Irish setter for their Irish setter... A bigtime television star drove into a fancy gas station on the Sunset Strip and ordered a gallon of gas for his Cadillac. The attendant pushed his cap back, scratched his head and snapped, "Hey, bub, whaddya tryin' to do to this car —WEAN it?!"

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Jingle-happy June that rhymes with moon, spoon and croon . . . but is spelled differently . . . also rhymes with soon (as for vacation) . . . and is in tune with the sky and the mountains . . . the desert and Palm Springs summer-casual living . . . It may seem languid under the summer sun . . . but there are all kinds of things going on . . . and many new developments readying themselves for fall . . . new people and new places . . . new situations and new ideas . . . and never a dull moment yet . . . Let's start a postcard shower . . . "Having a wonderful time . . . wish you were here" . . . for all our friends who left too soon . . .

Mari and Stewart Williams and their three children, Eric, Marianne and Geoffrey are just back from Utah . . . where they've been on a fishing trip near Bryce Canyon . . . They caught a lot of trout and report a "wonderful time" . . . They'll be here until August . . . when they go to Laguna for a month at the seashore.

Talking to Sally Nichols . . . and she and Culver will be here through July at least . . . Their sons, Steve and Larry are going to Camp O-On-Go at Sky Forest the latter part of June . . . Sally tells me that former Villager Cosette Stamm, who moved to Washington, D. C., this past fall, finds life interesting in the nation's capital.

Herb Samson has moved his family to Arrowhead . . . and is commuting between the mountains and the desert . . .

No matter how many friends you make each year . . . you still miss the old ones when they go away . . . and we are losing one soon . . . Edith Carlson, who's been assistant publicist for the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce for the past two and a half years, is leaving July 1 . . . She'll go up to Orinda, near San Francisco, for a visit with her brother and his family . . . but her future plans are still indefinite . . . It was Edith who started and trained the Debs . . . and has

Two-Year-Old Has Party on His Birthday
Celebrating the second birthday of Jere Stormoen, his mother, Mrs. Gene Stormoen invited some small friends to a party Friday afternoon.

Pin the tail on the donkey was one of the games played. It was won by Michael Thurreson but, since all the contestants were so small, there was a Mother Goose book or toy for each. Whistles were won by all in another game.

Carrying out the decoration scheme of blue and white, the cake was frosted in those colors and had a small cowboy on top. Blue and white nutcrackers were filled with candies and there were lollipops at each plate, along with blowouts and party favors. Above the table floated an assortment of balloons.

Ice cream, cake and punch were served.

The birthday boy received numerous gifts and everyone had a wonderful time. Guests included Heidi and Karen Wahlberg, Linda and Gail Hayes, Glen Wexler, Tina and Heidi Schilling, Michael Thurreson, and a group of mothers, Mrs. Lynn Wexler, Mrs. Evelyn Schilling, Mrs. Pat Wahlberg, Mrs. Charlotte Thurreson and Mrs. Ruth Hayes.

Gone Fishing
Ray Corliss, Ted McKinney and Dr. Robert G. Backstrom are due home tomorrow from a camping and fishing trip up into the High Sierras to Jordan Hot Springs.

Policemen to Host Party For Reserves

The Palm Springs Police Officers Association will entertain members of the Reserve Officers and their wives Saturday night at a party, which will be held pool-side at the Desert Inn.

Around fifty are expected to attend the party which Chief of Police August Kettman said was a gesture of appreciation for the assistance which the Reserve has given the Department and the Association.

This will be an informal affair with swimming followed by a barbecue. Sgt. Bob Ralph is head of the Police Association, and Capt. Lewis Kraft of the Reserves.

Honeymoon in Palm Springs

Honeymooning at the Oasis Hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Schilling, Jr., of Bakersfield, California. The Schillings were married in a double ring ceremony June 12 at a morning service in St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The groom's father, Rev. Fred A. Schilling, Sr., conducted the service and Ken Mallory, assistant manager of the Oasis Hotel, acted as best man.

The bride is the former Ardes Dove of Porter, Minnesota. Following their honeymoon the young couple will reside in Palo Alto where the groom, a graduate of Stanford University, is studying for his Doctor's degree in geology.

Barbecue Fetes Host's Birthday and Three Guests

A steak barbecue in the patio of the Robert Schnabel home at 1155 East Sunny Dunes Road Friday evening celebrated the birthday of the host and three of the guests, Joe Henderson, Ray Beezley and Marge Ballagh.

Among those enjoying the pleasant affair were Messrs. and Mrs. Joe Henderson, Ray Beezley, Clare Ballagh, Way Reynolds, Everett Ball, Ralph Watt, Paul Summers. Also Jewel Locke, Hilda Haigazn, Pat Murphy and Ken Mallory.

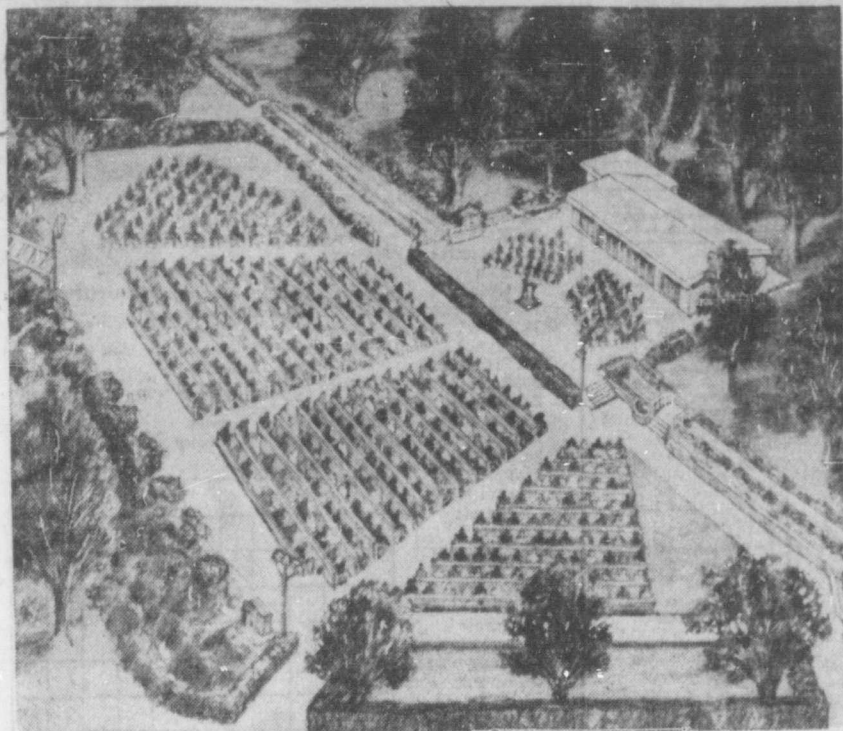

Schnabel teaches commercial subjects in Palm Springs High School and he and his wife and two children leave July 1 for a motor trip down into Mexico.

Europe Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Leib Rosen of El Coronado Hotel are planning a trip to Europe and Israel, sailing July 20 on the American-Holland line SS Statendam. En route they will visit in New Mexico, St. Louis, Chicago and New York, and expect to be in Israel in September for the Jewish Holidays.

KIERNAN KIDDIES Western Dance Revue will open the 1957 Summer Series of outdoor "Evenings in the Park" programs tomorrow night in the Park. The program series will continue on Thursday nights until Aug. 29.

Kiernan Kiddies Western Dance Revue to Open Park Series

With a cast of 90 performers, the Kiernan Kiddies Western Dance Revue will open the 1957 Summer Series of outdoor "Evenings in the Park" programs on Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in the Playhouse Bowl, Repplier Park, Banning.

Staged by the Kiernan Dancing School, operated by Bob and Ruth Kiernan who performed on the Broadway stage for more than 20 years, the first half of the program will be Western and Mexican dances while the second half of the program will include Spanish, Calypso, Rumba and ballet numbers. Elaborate costumes and special colored lighting effects will feature the performances on the large outdoor stage.

THE PLAYHOUSE Bowl, in its fifth season, will present programs each Thursday evening from June 20 to Aug. 29, inclusive with the exception of July 4, when the American Legion will put on its annual Fireworks Display from the Banning High School athletic field. This display will be preceded by the Junior Woman's Club parade at 11 a.m. and outdoor barbecue in Repplier Park from 12 until 3 p.m.

The summer series will include the Teen-Time Talent Show on June 27. On July 11, the Campbell Players of San Bernardino will appear in a comedy, "The Hasty Heart." Jane and Doug Lindsey, violin and piano, will entertain on July 18 and on the following week, July 25, the March Air Force Band will present a concert.

A VARIETY SHOW will be staged on Aug. 1, and one week later the Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts will present Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew." The Pass Players will appear in two comedy plays on Aug. 15. An outdoor Fashion Revue is the feature for Aug. 22 and the season's final program Aug. 29 will be a concert by the Isomata band from Idyllwild.

The Playhouse Bowl is operated by the Playhouse Bowl Entertainment Committee of the Park Board of Banning. There is no admission charge to the programs. A voluntary collection is taken at intermission.

Council to Start Summer Meeting Time on July 10

The City Council will begin its afternoon meetings the first meeting next month, and will continue them through the month of September.

City Manager R. W. Peterson reported to councilmen that the Summer schedule will go into effect on July 10 at 3 p.m.

The governing body expects to hold only one meeting in the month of August, to set the tax rate, and the balance of the month councilmen will take a vacation.

Council to Meet With Supervisors Here on July 2

City Manager R. W. Peterson told the city council this week that the County Board of Supervisors will meet with the council at an informal luncheon at the Chi Chi on Tuesday, July 2.

The council invited the county governing body to lunch to discuss mutual problems in the county.

The eight midwestern states produce 80 per cent of the soybeans 70 per cent of the corn, and about 64 per cent of the pigs raised in the United States.

Zone Ordinance Change Planned

To insure adequate review of Conditional Use Permit applications by requiring complete plans and city council approval, as well as to simplify and standardize local change of zone provisions, the city council will adopt zoning ordinance amendments at its meeting on June 26.

Under the change, it will require the submission of complete plans and approval by the city council, and revises the zone change procedure to conform with the State Government Code.

Under the State code it is necessary to hold one hearing before the Planning Commission and one before the City Council, and notification by publication only on comprehensive changes.

North Dakota has 451,000 acres of commercial forest land within its boundaries.

Thousand Palms Trailer Permit Granted by Board

A permit for operation of a trailer park on the north side of Ramon Road approximately one-half mile east of Vista De Oro intersection and approximately two miles east from One Thousand Palms Village in an I-W-2 zone (interim watershed, conservation and recreation in the One Thousand Palms district, was granted by the board of supervisors this week to J. G. Munholland of Palm Springs in behalf of Realty Service, a corporation of which he is president.

Action on an application by Dr. Charles A. Reagan of Los Angeles for operation of a trailer park on property located north of the Palm Springs city limits and approximately one-half mile east of the northerly end of Sunrise Way, was delayed for one week at the request of Supervisor George Berkeley.

The planning commission recommended that the permit be granted.

N.M. Industry

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — (UP) — There are 1,091 manufacturing plants in New Mexico, according to a publication of the State Manufacturing Association. This represents a 22 per cent increase over the 893 plants listed 10 years ago. The directory said 322 of the plants were in the Albuquerque area.

LAFF-A-DAY

DENNIS the MENACE

H. KETCHAM

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW

Fagaly and Shorte-

1. I'M SORRY I HURT YOUR FEELINGS CHARLIE BROWN...

2. WHY DON'T YOU CALL ME WHAT I CALLED YOU? THEN WE'LL BE EVEN!

3. NO I COULD NEVER DO THAT... NO I JUST COULDN'T... NO I'M SURE I COULD NEVER DO THAT...

4. I FORGOT WHAT IT WAS YOU CALLED ME...

A FINE HOWDYDO! YOUR RAIN DANCE IS CAUSED A FLOOD--NOW WE'LL NEVER GET THE DEMON OUTEN ALBERT.

YEAH---YOU DON'T SPECT HIM TO COME OUT IN ALL THIS WET, DO YOU?

THERE'S ONLY ONE THING TO DO--WE GOTTA SEND A ARMED POSSE IN AFTER THE CRITTUR.

A GOOD IDEA--THEN THEY KIN TRACK THE FIEND DOWN--AND WHEN THEY GETS HIM IN THEIR SIGHT, BLAM!

BLAM. MY EYE! SUPPOSE THEY MISSES IT ANYTHING ELSE THEY SHOOTS DOWN THERE WILL BE MINUS--I SURROUND THE RASCAL.

Panel 1: A boy asks his grandfather to sign his report card. Grandpa: "I CAN'T SAY YET..."

Panel 2: The grandfather looks at the card and says he'll have to look it over first. Grandpa: "I'LL HAVE TO LOOK IT OVER FIRST..."

Panel 3: The grandfather explains he can't find a single bright spot anywhere. Grandpa: "HMM... YOU JUST ABOUT MANAGED TO GET BY IN EVERY SUBJECT! I DON'T SEE A SINGLE BRIGHT SPOT ANYWHERE!"

Panel 4: The grandfather gives the boy the report card, which says "THAT'S THE FINAL REPORT CARD OF THE SEASON!!"

HELLO SIR, IS ETTA HOME?

HE LOOKS LIKE HE'S BEEN IN A TRACK MEET OR SOMETHING!!

OH NO!!! NOT 'SPEEDY'!!

WELL, HE WOULDN'T HAVE COME OVER IF YOU HADN'T ENCOURAGED HIM!! WHAT DID YOU SAY?

JUST KIDDING -

- I TOLD HIM TO RUN OVER AND SEE ME!!

AFTER ANDY'S ATTACK, THE SHEEP KILLER TURNS TAIL AND FLEES WITH THE BIG DOG BAYING AT HIS HEELS.

THE RUNNING FIGHT WINDS UP ON THE BRINK OF LOST BOY CANYON, BUT THE STEEP WALLS OFFER NO ESCAPE AND THE GREAT CAT TURNS TO FACE ANDY.

Panel 1: Phil is in a small boat on a lake, fishing. In the background, there are some buildings and trees. A speech bubble from Phil says: "Late afternoon, as Phil fishes his way by the Iguana lodge —"

Panel 2: Phil is still in the boat, looking towards the shore. A speech bubble from him says: "BENNY AND HER 'ANY SERVICE' HAVE BEEN VERY QUIET! SINCE IGUANA DIED! THINK I'LL SEE IF SHE'S HERE —"

Panel 3: Phil is standing on a porch or dock, looking out towards the water. A speech bubble from him says: "A few minutes later —"

Panel 4: Phil is standing in a doorway, looking out. A speech bubble from him says: "ODD! NO CAR IN THE YARD — DOOR WIDE OPEN, RADIO GOING — AND NO ANSWER!"

Panel 5: Phil is sitting at a desk, looking at a radio. A speech bubble from him says: "Then, over the radio, a terse bulletin —"

Panel 6: Phil is still at the desk, looking at the radio. A speech bubble from him says: "... STATE POLICE SAY THAT MRS. IGUANA'S SPORTS CAR APPARENTLY SWEERVED TO AVOID AN ONCOMING CAR, THEN PLUMMETED INTO A ROCKY RAVINE — HER NEXT OF KIN ARE BEING SOUGHT —"

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK — The band will play on, but this could be the year when Casey goes out with the strawberry blonde.

The New York Yankees deny that there is a feud between George Weiss and Casey Stengel. But the once-congenial atmosphere is tense and electric and Old Case is a proud man.

And Edna, Casey's strawberry blonde, has been after him to step down as manager for several years now.

CASEY IS A MAN who loves baseball. Wealthy in his own right, Stengel doesn't need the game financially. He stays in it because he thrives on the daily excitement and the success which finally came to him as skipper of the Yankees after years of being regarded as a diamond "clown" who couldn't manage an automatic dishwasher.

But suddenly it isn't the old joyride of the last eight happy years. It has become all too obvious that Weiss, the portly general manager, is the master of the marionettes.

There may have been some question, until recently, as to whether Casey helped pick his ball players. The general impression was that he did. This illusion, plus his managerial success, afforded, was enough to inflate and feed the long-hungry Stengel ego.

BUT WHEN THE Yankees swapped off Billy Martin to Kansas City in a four-for-three deal the window dressing was ripped aside. Martin was Casey's "boy." Stengel had him at Oakland and brought him up to the Yankees. He had a vast, unconfined admiration for the scrappy outfielder and, having been a gay blade himself in the old days, could chuckle behind a gnarled hand at Broadway Billy's antics.

THE RECENT fistie floor show at the Copacabana would have been shrugged off by Stengel. But it was the final payment on a ticked west for Martin as far as Weiss was concerned. "Uncle George" long has considered Martin a bad influence on Mickey Mantle, once ordered them to steer clear of the downtown lights. So when Martin was labeled as one of the instigators in the Copa clash, Weiss took matters into his own hands—as usual.

Stengel didn't have much to say about the trade. But he indicated it wasn't his handiwork, nor that it had his approval.

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION Joe Brown of New Orleans, left, puts his 136-pound crown on the block tonight in Denver, with Orlando Zulueta of Cuba the challenger. It will be a 15-round bout and nationally televised. (International)

Brown Rated 2-1 Favorite in Fight Tonight

DENVER — Champion Joe Brown, a rugged puncher for a lightweight, is favored to catch elusive Cuban challenger Orlando Zulueta often enough tonight to retain his title in a scheduled 15-rounder at Denver Coliseum.

Brown, 31, is a 2-1 favorite over the 26-year-old Havanan, although Zulueta has never hit the canvas in 100 fights. His fancy boxing and strong left could lift the champion's slightly worn crown. Brown has worn the crown less than a year.

The Baton Rouge, La., champion, who defeated Wallace Bud Smith for the title and again in his only defense in a re-match, was expected to weigh ounces short of the 135-pound limit. Zulueta was well under the limit, at 134½.

Ryan Named Acting Manager

MILWAUKEE — Third base coach Connie Ryan was the acting manager of the Milwaukee Braves today in the absence of Fred Haney who was hospitalized with acute gastritis.

Dr. Irwin Schultz said Haney, who was hospitalized Tuesday, will be "down in bed about three days." Schultz said X-ray examinations will be made.

M&M-Lehrfield 5, Mexican Colony 0.

Game Tonight
Mhoon-Mhoon vs. Telephone Co.

Wayne Schicke's masterful four hit pitching and Kenny Price's two-run homer led M&M-Lehrfield to a surprising 5 to 0 upset over the Mexican Colony last night at the Polo Grounds.

The loss dropped the Colony from a first place tie into third place, with Desert Hot Springs, 3 to 0 winner last night over Laurye's taking over the top spot with a 8-2 record.

Schicke proved tough with men on base in registering the win. Most serious threat by the Colony, although they had men on base in every inning but the sixth, was in the second when they had two men on with one out, and the bases loaded with two out.

M&M scored one in the first, another in the fourth, two in the sixth, and the final tally in the seventh.

Frank Prieto took the loss for the Mexican Colony.

The game at Desert Hot Springs was close all the way, with the league leaders displaying consistent form, and coming through with the win.

Shantz Continues Winning Ways for No. 1 Comeback

By FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer
Bobby Shantz, the New York Yankees' 142-pound pitching giant, owns an 8-1 record and 1.86 earned run average today that makes him baseball's No. 1 candidate for "comeback of the year" honors. Shantz, showing the same form that made him the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1952, turned in his seventh straight victory Tuesday night when he beat the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, to move the Yankees within 2½ games of the first-place Chicago White Sox.

THE WHITE SOX suffered their sixth loss in 10 games when Billy Pierce walked over the winning run in a 2-1 defeat at the hands of the Baltimore Orioles. The Cleveland Indians shaded the Boston Red Sox, 7-6, and the Kansas City Athletics beat the Washington Senators, 2-0, in the other AL games.

IN THE NATIONAL League, the Brooklyn Dodgers dumped Cincinnati into fifth place with a 7-0 victory over the Redlegs; the New York Giants whipped the first-place Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, the Philadelphia Phillies damped the Chicago Cubs, 7-6, and the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-1.

Don Newcombe pitched a five-hitter and drove in two runs with a double and a homer as the Dodgers tagged the slumping Redlegs with their fourth straight loss and eighth in nine games.

Bobo Olson Wins Split Decision

PORTLAND, Ore. — "You know, when that man hit me, I didn't feel a thing." That's what Carl Bobo Olson said in his dressing room Tuesday night after he had taken a split decision over the veteran Joey Villagers five.

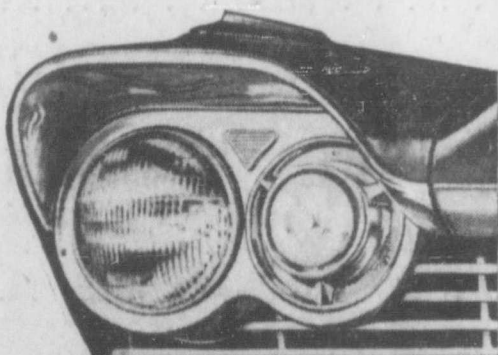

Pony Team Loses 8-6 To Banning

Palm Springs Pony Leaguers dropped their third game of the season yesterday afternoon at the Polo Grounds, losing 8 to 6 to a strong Banning squad. The visitors took an early lead, and held on to win. Big inning for the local squad was the fourth, when four runs were scored on four hits. Clark Sloan and Don Durand paced the Palm Springs team with two hits apiece, while Wes Stonebreaker had four for five for Banning. Gil Flores took the loss, and Gerald Norte the win. Each team had nine hits, with Banning committing only three errors, and the Villagers five.
